

To Celebrate Nativity.

Celebration of the feast of Christ's nativity starts at Sacred Heart Cathedral at midnight, the traditional hour of His birth in a cave at Bethlehem. At that hour the Most Reverend Bishop William J. Hafey will celebrate a pontifical high mass. He will be assisted by Rev. W. J. Kuder, of the Catholic Orphanage and Rev. M. F. Neale, assistant rector of the cathedral. Philip B. Edelen, Jr., a student for the priesthood will act as master of ceremonies with the altar boys of the parish serving in the sanctuary. Rev. John P. Manley, superintendent of the Catholic Orphanage, will preach the sermon.

The choir augmented by special singers will render the musical program under the direction of Rev. A. R. Freeman, John F. Vaughan, Jr., will be at the organ.

Other masses at the cathedral Tuesday will be at 8, 9 and 11 a. m.

The offerings on Christmas day will be applied to the support of the orphanage at Nazareth.
