Rev. Vincent C. McGouldrick, 71, of Tulsa, Okla., formerly of Bethlehem, died Wednesday in Chaing Mai, Thailand, where he was doing missionary work.

He was a pastor at St. John's Parish, McAlester, Okla. Before that, he served at various parishes throughout Oklahoma, and taught at Bethlehem Catholic High School.

McGouldrick was ordained at Ss. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Philadelphia. He also studied at St. Charles Seminary, Philadelphia, Maryknoll Seminary, New York, and St. Thomas Seminary, Denver, Colo.

He earned a master's degree from Oklahoma University.

Born in Bethlehem, he was a son of the late John and Evelyn (Rowe) McGouldrick.

He served as notary and chief squire of the Columbia Squires, Bethlehem. He also conducted many tours to Rome and the Holy Lands.

Survivors: Sisters, Kathleen McCole, Arlene Huber, Madelyn Schaeffer and Mary Zabreckly, all of Bethlehem.
