Gregory Plunkett

The Rev. Gregory J. Plunkett, 66, of New Windsor, died Sunday, Oct. 2, 2011, at Mercer County Hospital, Aledo.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 11 a.m., Wednesday, Oct. 5, at St. Anthony Catholic Church, Matherville. Burial will be in Farlow Grove Cemetery, Matherville. There is no visitation. Memorials may be left for the family. Dennison Funeral Home, Viola is handling arrangements.

Gregory J. was born May 4, 1945, in Moline, the son of D'James and Wilma Hull Plunkett. He graduated from Orion High School in 1963. Gregory was an antique appraiser for an agency in Boston, Mass. He also lived in Albuquerque, N.M., and worked with antiques. He entered Catholic Seminary of St. Francis in Wisconsin and completed his degree. He was ordained in 1988. Rev. Plunkett pastored many churches in Illinois, including the Ottawa, Carthage and Aledo areas, before his retirement. He loved to sing and had a great appreciation of music and art.

He is survived by his sisters and brothers-in-law, Dianne and Clark Miner, Coal Valley, Debby and Rudy Vallejo, East Moline, Robyn and Gary August, Walcott, and Rhonda and Dale Holgersson, Coal Valley; and several nieces and nephews.

Those preceding him in death are his father, D'James Plunkett; mother, Wilma Plunkett Cole; stepfather, Veryl Cole and his grandmother, Margaret Plunkett Johnson.
