Son of John E. & Lillian (Dunn) Gill.

He received his elementary education at Sacred Heart School in Omaha, and attended Creighton Prep. He continued his education by attending Nazareth Hall Seminary in St. Paul, Minn., and St. Thomas Seminary in Denver. He was ordained on May 31, 1941, by Archbishop Ryan at St. Cecelia's Cathedral in Omaha.

In the nearly 60 years that Fr. Ed served actively in the priesthood, he served St. Peter's and St. Agnes parishes in Omaha, parishes in Coleridge, Norfolk, Plainview, Butte, Madison, Atkinson, Central City, Stanton, Osmond and St. Edward. Sister Agatha Marie and Sister Maxelinda assisted the Rev. in St. Edward. They built liturgy, Catholic school education, CCD programs, convert classes, ministry to care center shut-ins, offered several parish retreats, along with several other services to the many communities he served. Following his official retirement on June 17, 1999, he and the Sisters moved from St. Edward to Albion, where he assisted the Rev. Frank Baumert at St. Michael's parish, and continued to share his time along with Sister Agatha at Cloverlodge Care Center in St. Edward.
